

YOUNG GETS ANOTHER WIN

Veteran Pitcher Was Steady Against Detroit

AND BOSTON WON, 4 TO 1

Donovan Was Given Poor Support—Cleveland Slaughtered New York and Chicago White Sox Went Into Second Place.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—The Boston Red Sox scored another victory over Detroit yesterday afternoon, this time 4 to 1, due in large part to a wild heave of Schmidt over the first baseman's head on Speaker's bunt. This put the last year's champs down in third place. The pitching honors were about even between Young and Donovan.

Boston broke the tie in the third inning after Cobb had pulled down Criger's fly. Young started to smash it with a single. McConnell rapped a hard one at Donovan which the pitcher couldn't field. Lord struck out, and then Speaker laid down a bunt in front of the plate. Schmidt heaved over Rossman's head so high that both Young and McConnell circled the bases. Criger followed with a single which scored Speaker. Cravath fanned.

The visitors got another in the fourth on Stahl's triple, followed by a wild heave by Schaefer on Criger's grounder, the ball getting by Rossman and allowing Stahl to score. Detroit's sole tally came in the sixth on Rossman's triple and an out. The score:

PULL OUT A HAIR

The Way to Tell If Your Hair Is Diseased.

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair, you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. Ninety-eight per cent. of the people need a hair tonic. You can make a test yourself that you can see and understand, which will tell you whether your hair is healthy or not. Pull a hair out of your head; if the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased, and requires prompt treatment. If its loss would be avoided, if the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy.

We want everyone in Barre who requires treatment to try our Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it shall not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, to stimulate the hair roots, to tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and cure baldness.

Out of 109 cases where it was given a thorough, conscientious test, it grew hair on 92 heads, which should be sufficient proof that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic contains extraordinary curative and hair growing qualities. It is because of our knowledge of this preparation and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is a clean, clear preparation which does not grease, gum or thicken the hair, and it has a very pleasing odor. We have it in two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. Rickert & Wells, the Red Cross Pharmacy, Miles granite block.

EBERHARD IS GUILTY.

Given Thirty Years For Murder in New Jersey.

Hackensack, N. J., Sept. 24.—A dramatic ending came yesterday in the trial of August Eberhard for the murder of his aunt, a well-to-do Viennese widow, when the defense suddenly collapsed, a plea practically amounting to an admission of guilt was offered and the youth was promptly sentenced to serve thirty years at hard labor in prison. The sudden change of front followed a conference before the opening of court between the prosecuting attorney and counsel for the prisoner. It was agreed to have the plea of not guilty changed to one of "non vult."

Eberhard heard the judgment of the court without a tremor. Eberhard in a confession said that as he and his aunt and cousin were walking along the Susquehanna railroad tracks in New Jersey they suddenly flashed before him the vision of his sweetheart, a New York girl, and he decided on the spot to murder and rob his aunt so as to get money with which to marry her. Then, the confession states, Eberhard shot his aunt in the back, and while urging his cousin to flee from the scene followed the girl slowly at a distance and fired three shots at her, one of which wounded her slightly.

BOY IS CHARGED WITH MURDER OF PRIEST

Santo Domingan Considered Counterpart of Prodigal, Rejected Profession for Robbery.

New York, Sept. 24.—In Enrique de Lara, the Santo Domingan youth who was arrested on charge of the murder of Father Arturo Ascencio in Central Park on Sept. 1, the police believe they have a counterpart of the prodigal of old. It appears that De Lara, who is 17 years old, is the son of a prosperous importer at Moca, Santo Domingo, who also has extensive business connections in Europe.

The lad was given a good elementary education in his home country and then sent abroad to live with a family. He had chosen dentistry and went first to Bremen, Ger., for a preparatory course. The police say the boy fell into evil ways after leaving home and when his career at Bremen was completed, instead of obeying the paternal injunction to go to Paris and complete his studies, he started out to see the world for himself. Finally he reached New York, and, tired of riotous living, applied to his father for funds to enable him to return home. He was refused, and, written in Spanish, was found in the young man's pocket at the time of his arrest. It was a flat refusal to send the boy as much as a penny. "You must conform to the conditions you yourself have brought about," the father wrote. "You must pay the price of your misconduct."

He had known the Rev. Fr. Ascencio in Santo Domingo before his wanderings began. The police declare the lad has made a complete confession, maintaining that the shots which caused the priest's death were fired by him while he was in a frenzy.

De Lara is alleged to have told the police that he had stolen the priest's trunk and then hurried away. He left the revolver from which the fatal shot was fired lying near the body, and expected that the death of the priest would be looked upon as a suicide.

Later, the police say, De Lara confessed he had stolen $100 and several gold watches from the priest's trunk several days before the shooting. Pawn tickets showing that the watches had been pledged by De Lara were found in his possession at the time of his arrest.

STUDENT PARALYZED IN RUSH.

Loses His Footing and is Trampled Upon By Comrades.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 24.—As a result of a conflict between members of the sophomore and freshmen classes of the Worcester Polytechnic institute last night, Emil Gran of West Wareham, Mass., a member of the sophomore class is in the City Hospital with his spine seriously injured. He is paralyzed from his chest down.

A "rush" in which Gran was injured occurred on the common. Some 200 students were engaged in the struggle. Gran lost his footing, fell, and was trampled upon.

An X-ray examination of Gran's injuries showed that his back had been broken in the dorsal region. He is said to be sinking rapidly.

HOLDUP IN BROADWAY.

Woman Choked and Robbed Near Stream of Theatre-goers.

New York, Sept. 24.—In the full glare of the brightest spot in Broadway, with a stream of theatre-goers within a few feet of her, Mrs. S. P. Stewart was choked, knocked down and robbed last night when she was about to descend the subway stairs at Forty-second street. The hold-up took place in a few seconds and the desperate highwayman had a good start before the throng that gathered realized that Mrs. Stewart had been the victim of a most daring last night when she was about to descend the subway stairs at Forty-second street. Melville E. Ingalls Says He Should Resign Office

HIS WALL STREET DEALS

Taft Makes a Scathing Attack Upon Bryan—Shows the Instability and Variability of His Views.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The political news developed that Mr. Haskell was mixed up in deals on Wall Street that certain firms there have cause to regret to the amount of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. Further, Secretary Straus of the department of commerce and labor, furnishes evidence connecting Mr. Haskell with one of the Standard Oil companies, Melville E. Yesterday's political news developed that Mr. Haskell was mixed up in deals on Wall Street that certain firms there have cause to regret to the amount of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. Further, Secretary Straus of the department of commerce and labor, furnishes evidence connecting Mr. Haskell with one of the Standard Oil companies, Melville E. Ingalls, a member of the executive board of the national committee, says Haskell should resign, as Mr. Bryan.

CHARLES N. HASKELL.

an has always had the reputation of running a clean campaign. Chairman Mack of the Democratic national committee, says that if Haskell is involved to the extent that Senator Foraker was in second follow the latter's example, and resign. . . . Colonel Bryan keeps on busily talking to crowds of enthusiastic people. . . . John W. Archbold repudiates the interview with him published in a Wall Street paper in which he is quoted as saying that business men are being held up by politicians. . . . Candidate Taft yesterday started on the first of his three speech-making trips and made his first stop at George Alder's great Republican gatherings at Brook, Ind., yesterday afternoon. He made a short speech and then went to Chicago, where, last evening he addressed a meeting of the Order of Railway Conductors. Tuesday evening in Cincinnati he made what may be called the real beginning of his campaign and delivered a scathing review of the career of his opponent for the presidency. He declared that Bryan's record had been one of "opinion and promise," and that it has shown "instability and variability of vision," which would make Bryan a dangerous man in the White House.

STRAUS INVOLVES HASKELL.

Shows That Prairie Oil & Gas Co. Is a Subsidiary of the Standard.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Secretary Straus of the department of commerce and labor addressed a letter to the editor of the World of New York, Tuesday, intended to corroborate the Hearst allegations of the Order of Railway Conductors. The letter is as follows:

In your editorial entitled as above you state: "Thus far Mr. Haskell's defense of himself is by no means conclusive. He has ignored entirely the Prairie Oil & Gas company charge and has attempted to shift the responsibility in the Monnett case upon another Haskell, who indignantly denies that he ever knew anything about the affair." You also state: "It ought not to be very difficult for him to prove that the Prairie Oil & Gas company, which he recently restrained the attorney general of Oklahoma from proceeding against under the laws of the state, is not a subsidiary corporation of the Standard Oil company."

As I know you welcome light upon this subject, and that clarification is very easily supplied I refer you to the evidence taken in the case of the United States vs. the Standard Oil company, now pending before the United States circuit court in St. Louis. In that case when the testimony was taken in New York the latter part of 1907 the Standard Oil company upon being required by the government to put in a list of all the companies in which it held stock or in which its subsidiary companies held stock, reported among other things the following, bearing upon this very point:

Petitioner's exhibit No. 11—Prairie Oil & Gas company, total capital, $10,000,000; United States vs. the Standard Oil company, $9,999,500. From other exhibits in the same case (9 and 31) furnished by the Standard Oil company, it appears that the capital stock of the National Transit company amounts to $25,453,200, of which the Standard Oil company of New Jersey owns, according to its own showing, $23,453,400.

You will thus see that you have put up to Mr. Haskell a very difficult proposition.

MONNETT EXPLAINS CHARGE.

He Says Charles B. Squire Gave Him Haskell's Name.

Columbus, O., Sept. 24.—"If I charged Governor Charles N. Haskell wrongfully it was because Charles B. Squire gave me his name," Frank B. Monnett, former attorney general of Ohio, yesterday made this statement on the private car of William J. Bryan, en route from Prospect, Ohio, to Columbus. Mr. Monnett declared, however, that he could not exoverate Governor Haskell from the charges that had been made that he was a party to the $300,000 bribe fund of the Standard Oil company, nor could he condemn him. "All that I have against Governor Haskell," he said, "is hearsay evidence, and I have suggested that if the case were presented to a grand jury it would be shown whether Governor Haskell has been wrongfully accused." Mr. Monnett denied that he had made speeches in Oklahoma exonerating Governor Haskell, but that in fairness to the governor he had stated the facts as they had come to him, and said that if the charges were proved he would return to Oklahoma at his own expense and denounce him.

HASKELL TO STUMP.

Oklahoma Governor Will Make a Tour of Ohio.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 24.—Governor Haskell, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, announced yesterday that he would depart on Sunday morning next for Ohio to make a speaking tour of that state. Among the other places he will visit is Ottawa, his old home town.

BRYAN CARRIES ROOSTER.

Says It Crows When Asked About the Maine Election.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 24.—William J. Bryan, Democratic presidential nominee, in thanking William O. Ferguson of Evansville for a little rooster given him when he was in this city several weeks ago, has written the following letter, received yesterday:

"My Dear Mr. Ferguson: I thank you for the rooster which you presented. We are having a good deal of fun with it. We are carrying it in our private car, and whenever a visitor comes in we have the visitor ask the rooster if it has heard from Maine, and the rooster at once crows forth and crows. I shall take it to Solon with me, and hope that it will have its voice with it on the morning of November 4."

CAMEL PROHIBITION EMBLEM.

Because It Is the Original "Water Wagon." Says Chairman.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Alonso E. Wilson, state chairman of the Prohibition party, Tuesday night announced that the Prohibitionists have decided to adopt the camel as their mascot, replacing the emblem of the fountain and the rising sun, which have stood as the insignia of prohibition. Among the reasons advanced by Mr. Wilson for the selection are that the camel is the original "water wagon," that it can desert a fresh supply of water further than any other quadruped, that it can travel faster than the elephant or the donkey and that it always has a bump on its head.

FORAKER REPLY.

Has a 5,000-word Statement on the Oil Case.

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—Senator Foraker yesterday was preparing his reply to President Roosevelt's statement regarding the Standard Oil charges. It was announced that the statement would be issued late yesterday afternoon.

Haskell Repeats Statement.

Washington, Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt yesterday telephoned to W. C. Haskell, sealer of weights and measures of the District of Columbia, formerly United States marshal for the northern district of Ohio, and recently declared by Governor C. N. Haskell of Oklahoma to be the person charged by Hearst with having offered a bribe to former Attorney General Monnett of Ohio. Mr. Haskell promptly went to the White House and assured the president that he was not the Haskell referred to, as he had already stated before the president. He did not know what Haskell Mr. Hearst had referred to.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Yesterday the New York State Federation of Labor, in annual convention, heard read a circular letter from President Samuel Gompers of the National Federation, calling for support in his fight against Governor C. N. Haskell of Oklahoma in the power by manufacturers in labor troubles. In response, the convention endorsed the Gompers manifesto, and voted to send him $200 with the message, "We are with you in this fight."

$1,000,000 LOSS A DAY

Vast Damage by Fires in the Adirondacks

ESTIMATE CONSERVATIVE

Says Dr. W. J. McGee—Drouth, However, Will Be Soon Relieved—Rain for Whole Country Promised by the Forecaster.

Washington, Sept. 24.—"The drouth that is prevailing throughout the country with such serious results will be broken about the beginning of next week," predicts Forecaster Garret of the weather bureau. "There will be a disturbance which will set in on the Pacific coast by tomorrow or next day, which will cross the country and bring fairly copious rains."

"The forest fires are due to the fact that there have not been any well defined storms in these regions."

The weather reports show that for a week past there has been no appreciable precipitation of rain over the great agricultural districts of the country. Dr. W. J. McGee of the geological survey, who has returned to this city after a visit to the Adirondacks, states that a conservative estimate of the damage being done there by the forest fires is $1,000,000 a day.

THIRD INCENDIARY FIRE IN THREE DAYS

Buildings of Piscataquis Agricultural Society, Dover, Me., Burned.

Dover, Me., Sept. 24.—The third fire within four days of probable incendiary origin yesterday burned all the buildings, except the grand stand of the Piscataquis Agricultural association. The loss was $1,500. The fire started in a row of unoccupied and locked stalls. Several valuable horses, including Payline, owned by Percy Gilman of Waterville, and Miss Leith, owned by Edward Ireland of Bangor, were removed in the nick of time. The drivers lost their clothing and outfall. The annual fair, scheduled for Friday and Saturday, will not be postponed. There were no exhibits in the hall.

The other fires burned the large hay barn of Fred E. Norris yesterday, and the stable of Dr. Corfen four days ago.

"UNDER PROTEST."

Mr. Gompers Answers Questions After Making That Statement.

Washington, Sept. 24.—That he would reply "under protest" to the questions certified to the supreme court of the District of Columbia in connection with the contempt proceedings against President Gompers and other Federation of Labor officials before Examiner Harper, as directed yesterday by Chief Justice Clegg, was announced by President Gompers on resuming the witness stand today.

The questions were not presented immediately today, but Attorney Davenport, for the Bucks company, asked regarding the publications concerning the Bucks Stove and Range company in labor papers. Mr. Gompers accepted responsibility for many of the utterances.

Mr. Gompers reiterated the charge that President Van Cleave of the Bucks Stove company, and of the National association of Manufacturers is employing detectives in connection with the contest with the federation, but Mr. Davenport protested.

The witness said he had advised the workmen that Judge Gould's injunction restraining the federation from putting the Bucks company on the unfair list could not have the effect of requiring them to buy the Bucks company's products and he thought them entitled to this information. He constantly reiterated his right to express his views editorially.

Bishop Brent has twice declined to take the diocese at Washington, made vacant by the death of Bishop Satterlee, believing that duty demands that he continue in the Philippines.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dizziness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the various ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

American Barque is Wrecked at Coronation Island

THE STAR OF BENGAL LOST

Was on Her Way to San Francisco—Fifteen White Men Drowned—Twenty-seven of Crew and Passengers Were Rescued.

Wrangle, Alaska, Sept. 24.—One hundred and ten out of a total of 137 persons aboard the cannery ship Star of Bengal were drowned last Sunday afternoon when the vessel was torn from the hold of protecting tugs and dashed ashore at Helm Point, at the southeast end of Coronation island. The news was brought by the tug Hattie Gage, Capt. Farrer, which carried the survivors, 27 in all. The survivors, before leaving Coronation island, buried the bodies of 15 white men on the beach.

The cable ship Burnside, which left for the scene of the wreck at midnight Monday, returned with the news that the Star of Bengal was a total loss, only the ends of the masts showing above water.

The ship was being towed to sea from the Wrangle cannery by the tugs Hattie Gage and Kayak. Capt. Farrer of the Hattie Gage gives the following account of the disaster:

"As we came within reach of the gale we could see we were making leeway and rifling toward Coronation island. The Kayak was light and could do nothing. The Hattie Gage could not handle the ship alone. At 4 o'clock the Star of Bengal drifted into a narrow bight and we could see land on both sides ahead. We anchored and found eight fathoms. We could see the vessel dimly by the phosphorescent rocks, which were all around."

"We cut the tow line and steamed out into open water,
